We are going to the Weber High School presentation of the musical Newsies to experience musical theater and life in industrial era America.

What you will do and what you will learn

- We will learn about democracy, labor, economy, free market, industry and revolution.
- This field trip assists to fulfill requirements in teaching standards in dance, music, drama, and social studies.
- Newsies is based on the 1899 true story of a group of newsboys who become unlikely heroes when they rally forces to fight an unscrupulous newspaper tycoon.

What you will need to wear or bring

- Wear long pants, skirts, or dresses. Our school collared shirts are fine. Dressing up more formally is most appropriate.
- Cold Lunch - Each a good breakfast. We will not eat lunch until about 12:30.

Our Schedule

- Take lunches in to lockers at 8:15 a.m.
- Meet at North Shore Parking lot at 8:30 a.m.
- Leave from North Shore Parking lot at 8:45 a.m.
- Arrive at the Weber High School Theater at about 9:00 a.m.
- Leave the Weber High School Theater at about 12:00 p.m.
- Be back at M.M.A. by 12:30 p.m.
