

Maria Montessori Academy Field Experience on 10/31/17 at Tracy Aviary
(589 E 1300 S, SLC, 84105)

The lead instructors are John Edwards and Amy Otto (jedwards@mariamontessoriacademy.org and aotto@mariamontessoriacademy.org).

What you will do and what you will learn

- Guided workshop on Utah Wetland habitats
- Workshop on Utah Wetland birds
- Explore Utah birds and their habitats
- Investigate a variety of birds within rainforest and other biomes
- Study birds from different States within the US and from around the world

What you will need to wear or bring
--

- A sack lunch
- According to the weather, possibly a warm and/or rain jacket
- Shoes appropriate for walking
- Pencil and clipboard for making notes and answering worksheets

Our Schedule

- Arrive at North Shore parking lot at 8.10, to leave at 8.20.
- Arrive at Tracy Aviary for first group tour at 9.30, while other group takes part in a self-guided tour
- Second group tour at 10.30, while other group takes part in a self-guided tour
- Lunch at 11.45 – 12.15
- Self-guided tours from 12.15 – 1.30.
- Bus departs at 1.45, to arrive back at school for 2.45

Transportation

- We will be travelling by First School Bus. We will not need parents to carpool and unless specifically asked, we will not require chaperones.