Teachers,

The 2014 Red Ribbon Week is just around the corner. The theme is Love Yourself-Be Drug Free. We have some exciting plans this year and we need your help.

We would like your students to work together to design and decorate their classroom door celebrating Red Ribbon, being drug free or just being healthy. Pinterest has some great ideas. Doors need to be finished by Tuesday October 28 at 3 pm. The winning class will receive a pizza party.

We will also be doing our essay contest (or picture contest for kindergarten/lower EI). Have the students write an essay about what this year's theme means to them. We will choose one winner from each of the following: Jr. High, Upper Elementary, Lower Elementary and Kindergarten. The winner will receive an assortment of Red Ribbon/MMA merchandise. Essays or pictures will be collected Wednesday October 29 at 2 pm and the winners will be announced on Friday.

We are happy to have Dorian Willes coming from Boise Idaho to speak to the students this year. Dorian is a recovering addict who lost part of his leg due to his addiction and while in prison, he graduated from College and is now a successful business owner and motivational speaker.

Friday the 31 will be Spirit Day. Please encourage the students to wear red that day (while staying in dress code, of course).

Thank you teachers for helping us make this year's Red Ribbon Week a success! If you have any questions, feel free to contact me at 801-458-1590 or email me at mrsrouglah@yahoo.com

Sincerely,

Autumn Douglas
