Story Number Sheet

You are going to write a story. You will randomly choose from six sections that will help you write your story. You MUST include each of these six sections in your story. First, you will select numbers as indicated below, and write them in the box provided. DO NOT LOOK at the list before you write down your numbers. After you have looked up the number on the list, write down what you got on the blank line.

When you are writing your story, the first (or only) time you mention one of your items, please BOLD it. Your story should be several pages long when completed. Type it in ARIAL font, size 12. When finished, add a HEADER to it with your name. Email me an attached copy of your story. You can two class periods to create it. Due at the end of the period on Thursday.

Main Character – Choose a number between 1 – 100
This is your main character—who the story is ABOUT.

Side Characters – Choose 2 numbers between 1 – 100

(do not choose the same number as your main character) These are your side characters—characters in the story who do not have as prominent a role, but who help or hinder your main character.

_____, _____

Genre – Choose a number between 1 – 12
This is the TYPE of story you are writing.

Location – Choose a number between 1 – 40
This is where your story takes place—the setting.

Plot Twists – Choose a number between 1 – 30

Random Objects – Choose 4 numbers between 1-100.

You must work these objects in to the telling of your story. Remember to bold them. They can be prominent in the story, or just part of the description.
