College and Career Awareness
Community Cycle
CDA: Goals & College/Career Terminology
Information Technology

Overview: The number one benefit of information technology is that it empowers people to do what they want to do. It lets people be creative. It lets people be productive. It lets people learn things they didn't think they could learn before, and so in a sense it is all about potential. -Steve Ballmer
Read more at: http://www.brainyquote.com/quotes/keywords/information_technology.html

Essential question: What are the global benefits of information technology?

Checklist:

Week 1 (October 24-28)

_____ Turn in network study guide (place in your file folder)

_____ Complete SMART goal work sheet (place in your file folder)

_____ Sign up for a Job Shadow presentation day using this link:
https://wejoinin.com/sheets/nnejx

_____ Record in your journal a paragraph about your Geocaching experience.

_____ Using Google Earth, sketch the route suggested from your house to the school. Record how long it takes to drive to the school vs walking or biking. Use labels!

_____ Create a 3D model of your bedroom, your dream house, or a chair

Week 2 (November 1 & 3)

_____ Complete an hour of Code at Code.org (Ms. Emily will provide login & passcode)

_____ Complete Stage 5 "The Artist" or Stage 9 "The Farmer" on Code.org

Week 3 (November 7, 9, 11)

_____ Create a cartoon animation using POW Toon

_____ Modify a photo using Photoshop Elements and email Ms. Emily your final product

_____ Create a survey using Google Forms

Week 4 (15 & 17)

_____ Complete Rich Media Project

_____ Turn in completed study guide to your file

November 21-25 Thanksgiving break!

November 28, 30 & Dec 2 Kick off our FAC unit!