

Layered Unit Assignment: The Peer Edit

Student Grading: _____ Owner of Assignment: _____
 Assignment type: _____ Date: _____

CATEGORY	4	3	2	1
Completeness	All aspects of the assignment are complete and well thought-out.	Most of the assignment is complete, but could use a few adjustments or details.	The assignment is somewhat complete, but important parts are missing.	The assignment clearly not complete.
Neatness	This assignment is neat and looks professional.	This assignment is mostly neat, but could be cleaned up a little.	This assignment is somewhat neat, but needs some attention.	This assignment is not neat and needs to be fixed.
Originality/Creativity	Assignment shows new ideas to demonstrate previously existing information	This assignment shows clever ideas, but could use a little more thought about how to make it one's own.	This assignment shows that new ideas were attempted, but could benefit from the brainstorming process.	This assignment needs a personal touch from the author.
Grammar/Mechanics	This assignment demonstrates a superb grasp of grammar (0-3 errors)	This assignment shows a good grasp of grammar and mechanics. (4-6 errors)	This assignment shows a good attempt at mechanics. (6-9 errors)	This assignment needs to be edited, proof read, and read aloud. (10+ errors)
Effort	This assignment reflects the author's best work.	This assignment reflects good effort.	This assignment shows that the author put forth some effort.	This author may have rushed this assignment and should consider revising it.

Peer Notes:

Owner Explanations: