

Mix 'n Match Period Usage

Match each sentence with the period rule that applies. Write out the entire word, not just the letter. If more than one apply, list all the possible answers on the line.

- a) Statement
- b) Command
- c) Indirect question
- d) Abbreviation
- e) Website

1. Mr. and Mrs. Owens had never been much for reading when they were alive, and there were no alphabet books in the graveyard. _____
2. The Lady touched the horse's neck, and it turned. _____
3. "Hullo?" called the man Jack, wondering if perhaps the child had stepped behind something.

4. Find out more about his books for readers of all ages at www.mousecircus.com. _____
5. "You wait for me up here." _____
6. "And you know I can't always follow you where you go." _____
7. Mother Slaughter and Josiah Worthington, Bart., accompanied Mr. Owens to the crypt of the old chapel, and they told Mrs. Owens the news. _____
8. The horse paused beside the obelisk. _____
9. "You will read the list I give you tonight and remember it for tomorrow." _____
10. Visit www.mousecircus.com for exclusive Neil Gaiman footage, video trailers, games, podcasts, and more!
