

Book Report

Due Date: November 4th

How to Submit: Hand in to Ms. Lisa (not submitted electronically)

Theme—a theme is a topic that is repeatedly referred to throughout the entire novel.

Example: Prejudice, courage, and childhood are 3 of the themes in TKAM.

Requirements	1	2	3	4	5
1. Identify one (1) theme in your novel.
2. Create a visual representation of that theme. Be creative, thoughtful, and sincere in your representation.
3. In your visual representation, include: title of novel, author of novel, and the theme.
4. Attached to your visual representation, write (type) 3 correctly cited pieces of textual evidence that justify your choice of theme.
5. On this paper with the textual evidence, write (type) 1 paragraph expressing your personal feelings/reaction to both the theme and the novel as a whole. How do you relate to the theme? What effect did the novel have on you? Why?

Book Report

Due Date: November 4th

How to Submit: Hand in to Ms. Lisa (not submitted electronically)

Theme—a theme is a topic that is repeatedly referred to throughout the entire novel.

Example: Prejudice, courage, and childhood are 3 of the themes in TKAM.

Requirements	1	2	3	4	5
1. Identify one (1) theme in your novel.
2. Create a visual representation of that theme. Be creative, thoughtful, and sincere in your representation.
3. In your visual representation, include: title of novel, author of novel, and the theme.
4. Attached to your visual representation, write (type) 3 correctly cited pieces of textual evidence that justify your choice of theme.
5. On this paper with the textual evidence, write (type) 1 paragraph expressing your personal feelings/reaction to both the theme and the novel as a whole. How do you relate to the theme? What effect did the novel have on you? Why?					