The Story of Plymouth Colony

- + September 1620, about 120 English men and women got on a boat
- The boat they took was called the Mayflower
- The ship landed in Cape
 Cod in Massachusetts

Trip and Settlement

- More than half of the people died on the way there
- The survivors were able to secure peace treaties with the Native Americans
- Many became ill and died the first few months of living there

The Mayflower Compact

- Before they stepped onto land, the Englishman signed a government compact
- + Signed by 41 male passengers
- It was a temporary compact to stick together and follow certain rules
