

Instructional Coach

“PURPOSE”

- What is this?
- What is my role in our school?
- What is my role with you as a teacher?

“Coaching is the art of creating an environment, through conversation and a way of being that facilitates the process by which a person can move toward desired goals in a fulfilling manner.”

Tim Gallwey

Instructional Coaching

What it IS and what it ISN'T

Collaboration- yes

Blame or quick fixing - NO

Working together not alone.

The joy of learning

A word cloud centered around the title "Instructional Coach". The title is the largest and most prominent text. Surrounding it are various educational terms in different sizes and colors (red, yellow, green, purple). The words are arranged in a cloud-like shape, with some oriented horizontally and others vertically.

A Polaroid photograph of a black rectangular sign with white text. The sign is mounted on a light-colored, textured surface. The text on the sign is in a bold, white, serif font, arranged in two lines: "YOU WILL" on the top line and "SEE ME" on the bottom line.

YOU WILL SEE ME

In the classroom: modeling and demonstrating

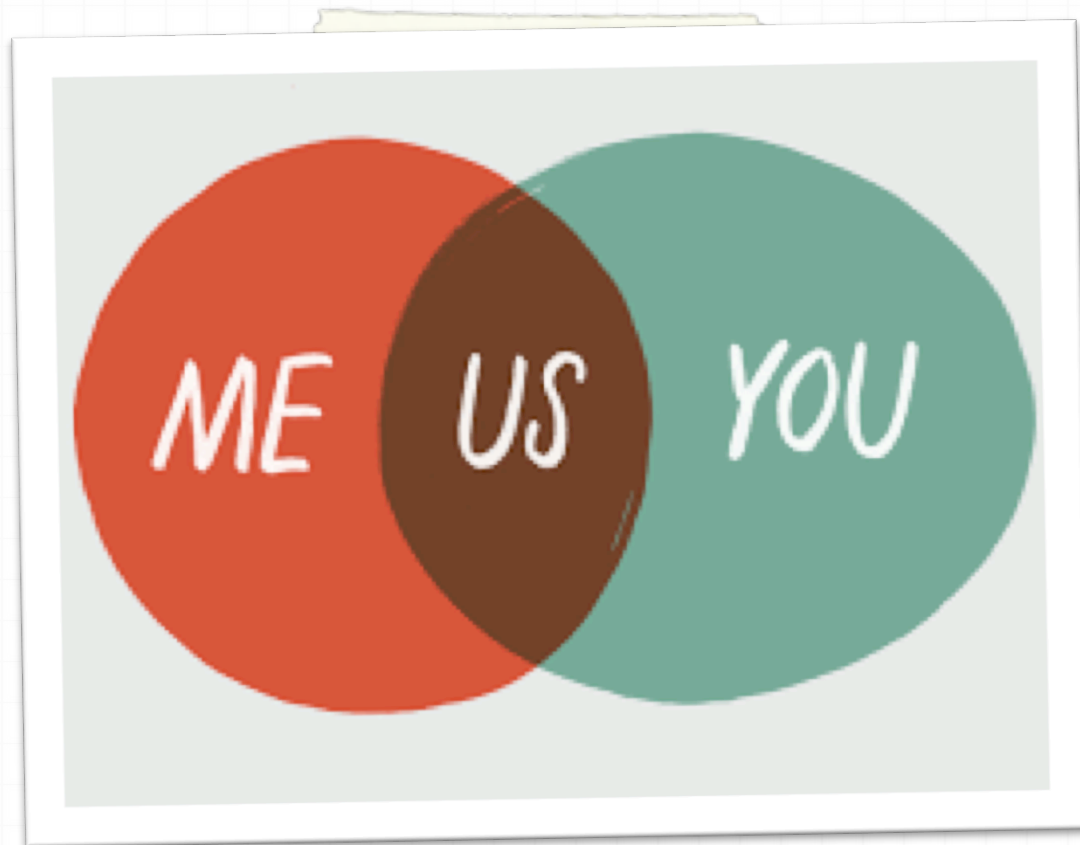

Outside the classroom: co-planning, providing feedback, offering suggestions, professional development,
collaborating for strategic planning, observing

Practice hours,
field trip coordination, instruction, and reflection,
help with scholarship implementation for professional development,
differentiation instruction,
